

The Silver Circle route, spanning approximately 146 km, takes you through a magnificent and ever-changing landscape while driving next to Borgarfjörður. Along the way, majestic mountains and glaciers will accompany you, their peaks glistening like silver in the sunlight, a constant reminder of their grandeur.

During your drive it is also possible to stop at powerful hot springs, breathtaking waterfalls and historical ensembles of heritage from past periods since the Settles age. Learn about Snorri Sturluson and his influence on many great thinkers, authors, and composers in the world of culture. Like Tolkien author of Hobbit and Lord of the Rings.

